Notice of Disclosure of Information

1. Selling your life insurance policy is an important decision. You may have certain tax consequences resulting from the sale of your policy and should request assistance from a personal tax advisor.
2. The sale of your insurance policy may affect your right to receive government benefits or entitlements.
3. Settlement Broker may be compensated. Our net amount equals the lesser of a percent of the face amount of the Life Insurance Policy or a percent of the client's net settlement, but not to exceed six percent of the face amount of the Life Insurance Policy.
4. There may be possible alternatives to selling your life insurance. This may include the option of an Accelerated Death Benefit offered by your insurance company. You are advised to consult a financial advisor, certified public accountant or an attorney regarding those potential alternatives.
5. You will be informed, upon request, of the name, address, and phone number of the escrow agent that disburses your settlement proceeds. Further, you may inspect or receive copies of your escrow agreement(s) for your settlement from the escrow agent.
6. Once you have received your proceeds from the sale of your life insurance policy, you will have a fifteen (15) day period in which to rescind the transaction. This is your full and legal right. You are advised to refer to the purchasing contract supplied by the Provider/Purchaser Company of your life insurance policy regarding this matter.
7. Settlement proceeds could be subject to the claims of creditors.
8. Settlement Broker is not affiliated with any Provider/Purchasing Company or Insurer.
9. Settlement Broker represents the viator¹ and owes the viator a fiduciary duty to act according to the viator's instructions and in the best interest of the viator.
